HPMS Students Earn Region Choir Spots

Kerrville, TX (Jan. 9, 2024) – Four Hal Peterson Middle School students earned spots in the Region Choir last month and will participate in a clinic and concert later this month.

From seventh grade, Ember Rosales earned a spot in the Advanced Treble Choir, while Benjamin Lopez earned a spot in the Tenor/Bass Choir.

From eighth grade, Ella Clark earned a spot in the Advanced Treble Choir, while Matthew Stoddard earned a spot in the Tenor/Bass Choir.

"Region Choir is such an amazing opportunity, they will meet so many kids that share the same love for singing as they do," said Jessie Putnam, Director of Choirs at HPMS. "I'm just so incredibly proud of them!"

After weeks of practicing, students auditioned before judges for the opportunity to earn a spot with their peers from area schools to participate in a clinic, followed by a concert on Saturday, Jan. 20 at Holmes High School in San Antonio. The concert is set for 3 p.m.
